Drawing is a time honored art form and a valuable foundation for anyone working in color. Drawing refines the ability to see form. The instructor will gently guide you through the exploration of drawing methods to allow greater sensitivity to grey tones and to the quality of line. A variety of exercises including portraiture, figure and still life drawing, as well as basic drawing principles such as proportion and perspective will be covered. Creativity is encouraged as your personal style emerges. Each participant receives personal guidance according to prior experience level, so beginners are welcome as well as those who want to refine their drawing skills.
